Begin your adventure by heading out with us on the charter boat Lu-Jac's Quest to explore the incredible diving of the Hood Canal. The vessel is a comfortable 42 ft long and 14 ft wide with a large back deck and spacious cabin. The dive sites offer a variety of life here in the Pacific Northwest from Pacific Giant Octopus and Wolf eels to name a few. You can also see many Nudibranchs, Lingcod, Rockfish, Puget Sound King Crab and much, much more.

Bring along your underwater camera as you will want to take home some great photos of everything you will see. The boat will choose the dive site dependent on weather and tides. Most of the dive sites have mooring buoys for easy ascents and descents. All the nature viewing is not just underwater, as getting to and from the
