

LEMBEH

North Sulawesi

INDONESIA

May 30-June 6, 2026

Diving in Lembeh Strait, located off the northeast coast of Sulawesi, Indonesia, is world-renowned and considered one of the best muck diving destinations on the planet.

Lembeh is famous for its unusual and rare critters. Macro photographers and critter enthusiasts come for the "weird and wonderful":

- Cephalopods: Blue-ringed octopus, mimic octopus, wunderpus, flamboyant cuttlefish
- Crustaceans: Harlequin shrimp, boxer crabs, mantis shrimp
- Nudibranchs: Dozens of colorful species
- Frogfish: Painted, hairy, giant
- Seahorses: Pygmy seahorses, common seahorses, thorny seahorses
- Other: Rhinopias, ghost pipefish, stargazers, snake eels

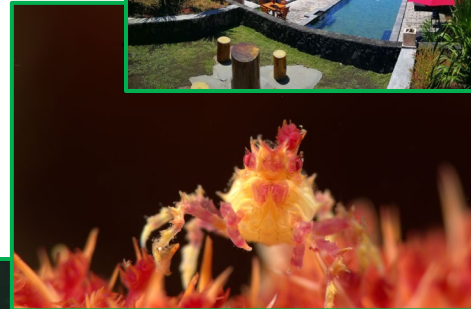

It isn't all muck diving, if weather permits it's possible to dive the blue water side for an additional charge.
